HOW WELLS FELL OVER KULA PALI

WAS EXPOSED FOR 20 HOURS—WONDERFUL ESCAPE FROM AL-MOST CERTAIN DEATH.

KAHULUI, Maui, November 16.—H.
M. Wells, School Inspector for the Island of Maui, met with a very serious accident on Monday evening last, November 12, which may prove fatal.
Wells had gone to Kula that day, driving up in his buggy to the Kealahou school, taking his young son aged nine with him, intending to be gone for several days visiting the schools in Kula, at Makana and at Ulupalakua. He was to spend the first night at the Kealahou school, and shortly after dinner thought he would walk over and call on S. R. Dowdle, whose cottage was but a short distance away but farther up the mountain and across a gulch.
As he did not return to the school cottage that evening, Mr. Vincent, the teacher, concluded that he had decided to spend the night with Dowdle, and so gave the matter no more thought. The next morning nothing was seen or heard from him, so Vincent sent up to Dowdle's to inquire, but Dowdle was away from home at the time. A little later Miss Mary Vincent went herself up to Dowdle's and finding him home told him that Wells had disappeared.
Dowdle immediately went down to the gulch and beginning down near the Government road began to search, following the bottom of the gulch up.
Rounding a turn in the steep sides he came suddenly upon Wells' prostrate form, lying in the bottom of the gulch, his head and hair matted with blood, one leg of his trousers likewise soaked, and upon trying to arouse him found that he was unconscious.

Doctor McConkey, who was summoned, found that he had sustained a compound fracture of the thigh, and that his head was badly cut and bruised. He fixed him up as best he could there, and the next day, Wednesday, he was conveyed in a wagon to the Paha Hospital.

It appears that Wells was trying to cross the gulch, and it being dark he was not aware of the steepness of the sides nor of the depth of the same. He apparently thought that he could without any trouble work his way down one side and up the other, but when a little way down the side, he must have slipped and for a little while rolled over and over and then fallen a sheer 40 or 50 feet to the bottom, landing on the rocky bed of the dried up stream. It is impossible to tell whether he landed on his head or his leg that is broken, but that he must have had pretty much of a clean fall is surmised from the fact that he has few other bruises appear on his body. His face is quite badly cut below one eye, and he has a bad bruise on the back of his head, but beyond that his body is quite free from marks. He must have fallen sometime about 7 o'clock on the evening of Monday, and it was not until nearly 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Tuesday that he was found, so that he had lain out in the gulch for nearly twenty hours, exposed to the cold of the night, which in Kula means something, and to the heat of the day. It is a marvel indeed that he is even alive, or that he survived the fall at all.

H. P. BALDWIN TELLS OF MAUI

SAYS THE REPUBLICANS FEEL THAT THEY DID ALL THAT WAS REQUIRED OF THEM

H. P. Baldwin is in town to attend the meeting of the Planters' Association which convenes next week. Mr.
Baldwin reports everything on Maui as being in splendid shape and the prospects good for a good crop next year.

"We cleaned up everything there," said Mr. Baldwin, "in the political line except one officer, and so we thought that we were doing very well indeed.
We run ahead of our record."

Mr. Baldwin was very busy today seeing the different business men in town with whom he has business. It is not often that he visits Honolulu and his business here accumulates.

JONES MUST WAIT FOR INSTRUMENTS

DEMANDED DEFAULT OF GUAR-ANTY FOR BAND PARAPHER-NALIA AND IS ASKED TO BE PATIENT.

Colonel J. W. Jones, N. G. H., is in receipt of the following from the local attorneys of the guaranty company which went bond for the instruments loaned the Hawaiian Band:

Honolulu, T. H., Nov. 14, 1906.
Mr. J. W. Jones, Colonel, First Regiment, N. G. H., City.

Dear Sir:—In reply to your demand of the 15th inst., upon the United States Fidelity & Guaranty Company for payment of $3000 to you on account of default under the Company's bond of May 22, 1906, by reason of its failure to cause the return of the First Regiment Band instruments on or before September 30, 1906, we can say that Pacific Coast representatives of the Company have wired its representatives here that the instruments in question will arrive here on the "Korea," due to leave San Francisco on the 20th of this month. As the instruments are not lost or destroyed, but will be here and returned to you in ten days' time, the damage you will have suffered by reason of the default in the matter of time, will be slight, if not nominal. As the Company's bond is an ordinary suretyship bond and designed simply to protect you, the Company feels that the arrival of the "Korea" should be awaited, when you will receive the instruments, and whatever damage, if any, you may have suffered can reasonably be ascertained, and when the Company will be ready to fulfill whatever legal obligation it may owe to you under the bond. Yours truly, SMITH & LEWIS,
Attorneys for United States Fidelity & Guaranty Company.

CHRISTMAS CARGO.

The A.-H. S. S. Nebraskan leaves

November 20. The cargo will be of a Christmas nature, including turkeys galore.

MRS. WIGGS AND MRS. MALAPROP

Mrs. Malaprop, whose use of high-sounding words in the wrong places in her flow of conversation, will be excelled by "Mrs. Wiggs" of the famous "Cabbage Patch." Mrs. Wiggs uses phrases and words which remind one strongly of Mrs. Malaprop and are even funnier. Mrs. Wiggs in cheap ginghams, rolled-up sleeves and untidy hair, is a far different person from the bejeweled Mrs. Malaprop, but she is modern. There are many Mrs. Wiggses in every community. The comedy dramatization of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" will be presented at the Opera House next Thursday and Saturday by an amateur company among whom will be found some of the best talent in Honolulu. The box office is open next Monday at Wall Nichols' store.

CARMEN'S DANCE TONIGHT.

For tonight the headquarters of merciment will be established at Progress Hall, for there will occur the second annual ball of the Rapid Transit carmen in the form of a shirtwaist dance.
There will be late cars on all lines for the accommodation of guests. The grand march commences at 8 o'clock.
A large number of tickets have been sold and the hall will be filled with happy couples.

TOURISTS ARE COMING.

It is stated that seventy-five per cent of the tourists arriving here during the season spend on an average two nights and two days at Haleiwa and the other twenty-five per cent remain there from one to three weeks. This speaks well for the management and for the attractions of the place. One can go there for a week and return to town, not broke, financially, and improved in health and spirits. There is no place in the islands that does so much for the broken down constitution, no place where nature has been so liberal with her charms. St. Clair Biddood, manager.

MDE. JOSEPH BEAUDOIN. CATARRH OF STOMACH RELIEVED BY PE-RU-NA.

Mde. Joseph Beaudoin, 50 Rue St.
Olivier, Quebec, P. Q., Can., writes:
"Peruna is wonderful for indigestion.
I eat whatever I want and no longer feel any oppression."

"Having had dyspepsia for a long time and having tried various other remedies, I decided to try Peruna and with the fourth bottle of it I was perfectly cured."

"For this reason I recommend it to all those who are suffering with that terrible malady, dyspepsia."

"I hope that all who are afflicted in this way will take Peruna as I did."

The experience of Mde. Beaudoin ought to be sufficient proof to any one of the value of Peruna in cases of catarrhal dyspepsia. If you suffer from stomach catarrh in any of its various forms, give Peruna a fair trial, avoiding in the meantime all such indiscretions as diet as would tend to retard a cure, and you will soon be rewarded by a normal appetite and healthy digestion.

For special directions everyone should read "The Ills of Life," a copy of which surrounds each bottle. Peruna is for sale by the following druggists and will supply the retail trade in Honolulu, Hawaii, Benson, Smith Co., Holborn Drug Co., Honolulu, Hawaii.

The Chinese crew of the British steamship Isleworth was released and sent back to China in the Chusa Maru

THANKSGIVING PRACLAMATION.

In conformity with established custom, and in accordance with religious sentiment, I hereby proclaim and designate Thursday, the 23rd day of November, 1906, as Thanksgiving Day, and recommend the setting apart of said day in the same spirit that has characterized its observance throughout the United States during many generations.

Let us show our gratitude for the fortunate conditions under which we are living, for the benefits that have been bestowed upon us and for the great gift of good health, by remembering the poor and needy, by the suspension of labor, by friendly intercourse, and by thanking Almighty God for His loving kindness and His manifold blessings.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF,
I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the Territory of Hawaii to be affixed at the Executive Building, in Honolulu, this Twelfth day of November, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Six, and of the Independence
